Re-implementation of Phase Two No In Person Worship

Mount Pleasant has been adhering to the CDC guidelines and following the protocols established by the Re-entry team. There are no reported cases of anyone contracting COVID as result of attending worship services.

Effective immediately the church will resume implementation of Phase Two. In-Person worship services and registration will be temporarily suspended for the general congregation. Worship services will be streamed "live" via Zoom, Facebook, YouTube and the MPBC website. Only assigned ministries and persons will be allowed in the sanctuary during services.

However, all persons who enter the church for rehearsals, participation and or set-up of events must fill-out the COVID liability form and do a temperature check upon entering the facility.
